SUBJECT:

Drug Legislation - Senate Passage.

1. On 14 October 1988, the Senate passed its version of the omnibus, anti-drug legislation after incorporating several key amendments. These included some relief for the Intelligence Community vis a vis the drug czar and, we understand, a provision modifying the role of the General Accounting Office overseeing a research and development proposals involving community facilities.

2. The bill now goes back to the House where it is not yet certain what response the House will make.

3. We will keep you informed of further developments.
